10. Haiti: Duvalier, tormented by an inability to bring the rebels to bay, apparently has developed exaggerated ideas about their numbers and prowess.

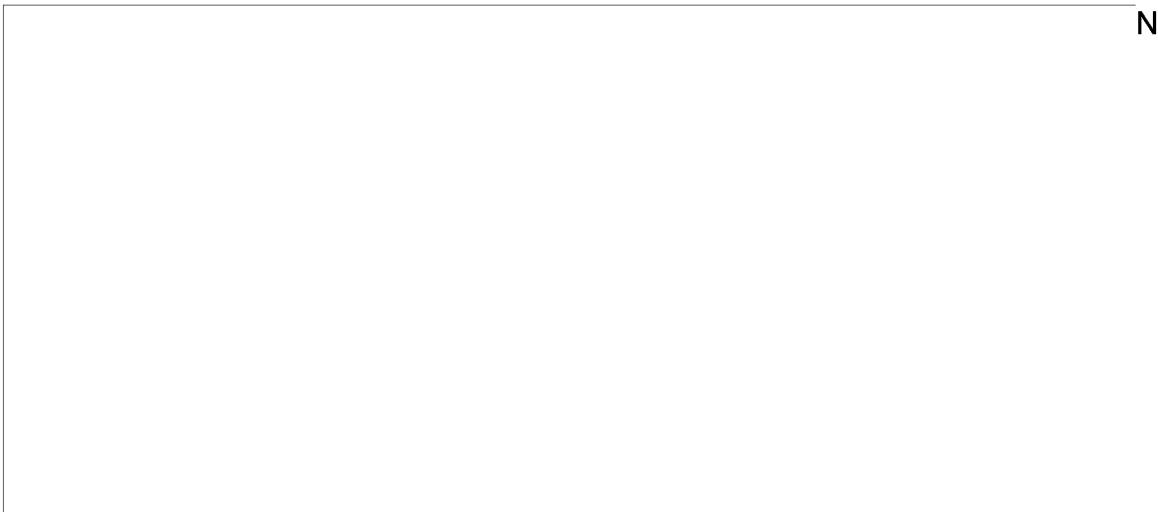

(b)(1)
(b)(3)

Distrustful of all connected with the affair, Duvalier has acted with his usual savagery. Many hostages have been killed, some by his own hand.

He blames most of his troubles on the US and threatens to close down our embassy once the rebels are beaten.
